Why don't you insure? And if you do, why don't you insure in the Pacific Mutual life? You certainly would if you should first take trouble to investigate the advantages offered by that Company. Don't take our word for it, but try it.

While the Kahului Railroad Company is not posing as a philanthropic institution, yet the action of Supt. Filler in reducing freight rates on small packages from Honolulu so materially is deserving of the highest commendation.

There is no truth in the rumor that the Kahului Railroad Co. is discharging native Hawaiian to put on Japs and Chinese. The trouble is that the natives have recently been hanging round Wailuku studying politics instead of going to work at Kahului which compelled the Company to send to Honolulu for stevedores.

THE NEW

ADMINISTRATION

At noon on Monday, January 4, a procession of carriages started from the corner of the Market Street, at the Kepoikai building where the new county offices are established, and proceeded in state to the court house. In the carriages were seated the newly elected county officials.

On reaching the court house, where they were received by Wailuku's military company, they appeared in court and were received by Judge Kalua, who called the members of the Board of Supervisors-elect before him and announced in Hawaiian that their bonds had all been presented to him and approved, and that he had administered the oath of office to each of them. The Judge followed with a brief address in Hawaiian, which was replied to by Chairman T. B. Lyons in the same language.

The Board went into session at once and have been quite busy all week approving bonds, confirming appointments and attending to other preliminary matters. The amount of the bonds of the supervisors is $10,000 each, and their sureties are as follows:

T. B. Lyons; sureties, A. Enos, Joe U. Marciel.

W. H. Cornwell, Jr.; sureties, P. Cockett, W. T. Robinson.

G. P. Kaunimakaole; sureties, Joshua Aluli Jr., Luke See Chin.

C. L. Kookoo; sureties, Solomon Hale, Jonah Kumulae.

J. K. Hiblo; sureties, E. H. Kekapai, Luke Tan Sing.

The bonds and sureties of the other officers, as approved by the Board of Supervisors are as follows:

Wm. White, Sheriff; bond, $10,000. Sureties, C. B. Cockett, D. K. Kahalelio; August Reimann, Wm. Silva, N. Keenini, S. K. Kahalekai.

D. K. Kahalelio, Tax Assessor, bond, $—, Sureties, A. Ahio, Lucy K. Puahi, L. K. Sniffen, Ben Kokoana, P. Silva. No amount is fixed in the bond of the Tax Assessor, although the County Clerk informed the representative of the News that the Board of Supervisors had fixed the bond of the Assessor at $50,000. It is rather singular that a bond without any sum being fixed in it should have been signed by sureties and sworn to as this one was. But more singular yet was it that the Board of Supervisors should have accepted such a bond and allowed a commission to issue to the Tax Assessor. Of course it is simply no bond. The County Clerk informed the News reporter that he had been instructed to fill in the amount of the bonds, but had neglected to do so. This raises another question, as to what right the County Clerk has to fill in the amount in the Tax Assessor's bond, after it had been duly signed and sworn to by the Assessor and his sureties, accepted by the Board of Supervisors and put on file. As a matter of fact he has no right to do so, and the Supervisors will be compelled to call for a new bond from the Tax-Assessor. It was Thursday morning when the News representative inspected the bond, and it is a matter of interesting conjecture as to whether the Clerk has since added anything to the purported bond. It is not at all likely that anything wrong was intended in the matter, but such carelessness should not prevail in the management of county affairs.

P. Cockett, Treasurer; bond, $65,000. Sureties, W. H. Cornwell, George Cockett, David Morton J. C. Ah Sam, Edgar Morton, G. Akuna, and C. W. Booth, each of whom swore that he is worth the sum of the bond, over and above his liabilities, as required by law.

D. H. Kahalelio, County Clerk; bonds, $15,000. Sureties, Wm. Mahuka, J. W. Kalua.

L. K. Crook, Auditor; bonds, $10,000. Sureties, the Pacific Surety Co. John Richardson, County Attorney; bonds, $10,000. Sureties, P. S. Correa, Thomas Clark.

J. K. Kahokele, Surveyor; bonds, $10,000. Sureties, Antonio Silva, S. Ah Mi, Young Kat Haag, S. Kahale, Sam Nahale.

The following is a complete list of the Deputies and Appointees.

The following recommendations have also been made by the Board of Supervisors:—George W. Maxwell, Sanitary Inspector, Wailuku; Chas. Kanaehelo, Food and Fish Inspector, Wailuku; W. E. Bai, Supt. Wailuku Water Works; Matt M. McCann; Supt. Lahaina Water Works.

As a general rule, the deputies and appointees have been required to take the home rule oath before receiving their commissions, but some exceptions have been made the rule. In order to remove Judge McKay and Judge Copp, the Board of Supervisors, under the advice of the County Attorney passed an order cutting off their salaries, and appointed Thos. Clark as District Magistrate of Wailuku and E. H. Kekapai as District Magistrate of Makawao, with salaries attached.

It is understood that the salaries of the deputies and appointees has not been definitely fixed yet, but as soon as they are the News will give a tabulated list of them.

The Board of Supervisors met yesterday morning at the Court house for the last time this week, having adjourned over to next Wednesday, in order to await the expected decision of the Supreme Court.

An Unwise Move.

If there is any department of the county government which should be kept out of the political pool, it certainly is the judiciary department. Consequently the cutting off of the salaries of Judge McKay and Judge Copp and the appointment of two such men as Tom Clark and Kekapai to succeed them is an act which is inexcusable from any point of view. An added sting is that Judge Copp was requested to take the home rule oath, and his refusal to do so is what caused the appointment of Kekapai, who is admittedly the inferior of Judge Copp.

The adage of "to the victor belongs the spoils" is all right in minor positions, but the mass of the people who are not politicians, and who simply desire good and capable officials, are to be reckoned with for this lowering of our county district magistracy.

Judge McKay and Judge Copp still retain their commissions, and the Board of Supervisors would gain confidence in the minds of disinterested citizens of Maui, if they conclude to rescind their action in the matter.
